IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ BEFORE SENDING IN YOUR APPLICATION

Though we plan to enjoy ourselves at these camps, their primary purpose will be to study the Bible and learn how to be active in local congregations. If you will enjoy days filled primarily with Bible study, singing and spiritual conversation, you will enjoy the experience. If not, perhaps it would be best to consider another type of camp. Of course, any disruptive behavior or lack of cooperation with teachers or counselors will result in immediate expulsion, but we don't expect this kind of problem. As in previous years, cell phone use will be restricted to certain hours to be announced at each camp. CD players, walkmen, laptops, I-pods, etc. are to be used only for spiritual purposes. Permission will be required to leave the camp ground by car. Make sure all of these conditions are acceptable to you before signing this application and sending it in.

Important Recommendation: Please have an elder, evangelist or another strong Christian read and sign the following recommendation.

I know the applicant and am confident he will enjoy a week of Bible Study at camp.
